

An Easy Way to Support the U.S. Army Auxiliary Activation Project (At No Cost to You)

A LOT of people already shop on Amazon for just about everything — literally A to Z. Most of us are buying things there anyway.

So when you, your spouse, your friends, or your family are going to shop on Amazon, please use this link as your starting point:

👉 <https://amzn.to/4p4QsSO>

- FYI, It's a link to Garment Tactical T8 NFS Boots but you don't have to buy them, but this needs to be your starting point.

How It Works (Simple Explanation)

1. Click the link first
Start your Amazon shopping by clicking the link above. (To the Garment Boots)
2. Amazon opens like normal
Nothing looks different. You're just on Amazon like always.
3. Shop for anything you want
 - You do not have to buy the item shown in the link
 - You can buy anything you actually want or need
 - Shop exactly like you normally do
4. Buy within 24 hours
As long as you complete your purchase within 24 hours, Amazon knows you came through our link.
5. We receive a small commission
Amazon shares a small portion of their profit with us.

You pay the same price.

There is no extra cost to you.

Important Clarifications

- Amazon does not endorse the U.S. Army Auxiliary Activation Project
- Amazon is simply sharing part of their profit through their affiliate program
- This is fully allowed and built into how Amazon works

You may see the affiliate account listed under:

- My name (Jim Stephens)
- ServiceOutfitters.us
- Or the email ServiceOutfitters@gmail.com

All of these are associated with the same affiliate account supporting this project.

Why This Helps So Much

Every time someone uses this link and shops:

- We receive a small commission
- That money helps cover advocacy, outreach, printing, postage, website costs, and project expenses
- It directly supports the U.S. Army Auxiliary Activation Project

Think of it as a no-cost donation every time:

- You shop on Amazon
- Your spouse shops on Amazon
- A friend or family member shops on Amazon
- If your business or workplace shops on Amazon
- Anyone you share this link with shops on Amazon

They buy what they already planned to buy — and support the project at the same time AT NO ADDITIONAL COST TO YOU OR THE BUYER!

Required Disclosure

This is an Amazon affiliate link.

As an Amazon Associate, we earn a small commission from qualifying purchases. Amazon does not sponsor or endorse the U.S. Army Auxiliary Activation Project.

Thank You!!!

Thank you for your continued support. Every click helps, every purchase counts, and together we are building something bigger than any one of us.

Together, we can make America's Auxiliary great.
